mentiment.

Mr. Breckinridge closed the discussion.

After the close of Mr. Breckinridge's speech the bill was read by sections for amendments, but before this was completed Mr. Breckinridge moved that the committee rise. The committee rose and the president's message was laid before the house. No attention was paid to the reading of the message and all the members engaged in conversation or wandered about the hall.

Mr. Boutelle called for the instructions to Mr. Willis. After some discussion the speaker directed that they be read. At the conclusion the house adjourned until tomorrow.

Battle Creek, Mich, Dec. 18.—ExGovernor Luce's attack on Congressnan Burrows for his vote on the silver question has caused no little misgiving meng local republicans. Many farmres, although they have voted the republican ticket in the past, are out and out free silver men. There are also about 800 union men in this city alone who have declared themselves to be in awar of free silver, and at the recent date convention of the Michigan Federation of Labor, held here, a resolution
